Hello Marc and Julie,

Due to the inclement weather, Norm, Chairman Mortimer and I will be participating electronically tomorrow. Fred Kirschner will be there in person.

Just wanted to give you a heads up so you can adjust lunch order if necessary.

Thanks - Susan

Team,

Atlantic Richfield is hosting a technical working meeting to review the methodology for calculating reference threshold values (RTVs), the rationale for using the upper simultaneous limit (USL) to calculate RTVs, and the calculation of exposure point concentrations (EPCs). We estimate about two hours will be required to cover each topic; thus, this will be a full day meeting. We are preparing presentation materials designed to guide the discussion and encourage interactive participation.

The meeting will be held at Amec Foster Wheeler's office in Rancho Cordova, CA:
